

MINEHEAD AND WEST SOMERSET ARTS SOCIETY
Coach party to New Theatre, Cardiff : Thursday 26th April 2018

'Jane Eyre' by Northern Ballet

I do hope that you will want to come to Cardiff for this ballet; Cardiff is as far 'south' as this amazing company come apart from London!

The ultimate heroine, Jane Eyre's journey to overcome the odds is one of literature's finest love stories. Orphaned at a young age and cruelly treated by her aunt and cousins, Jane Eyre grows up knowing little kindness. She accepts a position as governess at Thornfield Hall, owned by the mysterious and brooding Mr Rochester. In spite of their social differences, an unlikely bond grows between them, but as their romance develops it becomes clear that Rochester has a hidden past that threatens to ruin them both. The choreography is by Cathy Marston and the music composed by Philip Feeney and played live by Northern Ballet Sinfonia.so

We will leave Minehead at 9am for the 2.30pm matinee performance and I have reserved seats in the front 3 rows of the Circle. Tickets will be £38.
